

Shirley N. DITA is Assistant Professor of the Department of English and Applied Linguistics of De La Salle University, the Philippines. She holds a Ph.D. in Applied Linguistics from the same university where she graduated With Distinction. Her dissertation entitled A Reference Grammar of Ibanag is currently in press as a monograph of Lambert Academic Publishing (LAP), Germany. She is the editor of a volume entitled Issues and Trends in Applied Linguistics in the Philippines: A Decade in Retrospect as part of the De La Salle University Centennial Publication Series. Shirley has been involved in the corpus building of Philippine languages and is doing a project on a dictionary of Itawit, a minor Philippine language, funded by the National Commission of Culture and the Arts (NCCA) of the Government of the Republic of the Philippines. Shirley considers Austronesian linguistics and world Englishes her areas of interest on which she has read papers and given lectures in various conferences in the Philippines and abroad. Recently, she gave a plenary talk in the 24th Pacific Asia Conference in Language, Information, and Computation (PACLIC) in Sendai, Japan.

Email: shirley.dita@dlsu.edu.ph