

Anna Maria Gloria S. WARD is a faculty member of the College of Science of the University of Santo Tomas. She has held several posts such as Director of the Center for Professional Development and Consultancy Services at the UST Graduate School and Director of the UST Public and Alumni Affairs Office. She was also Coordinator for Languages at the College of Science from 1994–1998. She was a past president of the Linguistic Society of the Philippines (LSP) and vice-president of the Language Education Council of the Philippines (LEDCO). Currently, she is the Treasurer of LSP. Her professional affiliations also extend to memberships in the Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) International, College English Teachers' Association (CETA), American Studies Association of the Philippines (ASAP), and the Council for Department Chairs in English (CDCE) among others. She finished her Bachelor of Science in Education major in English at the University of Santo Tomas (Cum laude) and her Master of Arts in English Language Education degree at De La Salle University (With Distinction). In 1995, she received a Certificate on Language Across the Curriculum from the Canterbury Christ Church College in Canterbury, England. In 2001, she was a recipient of a scholarship to the Center for Asia-Pacific Exchange for a workshop for Asia-Pacific Teachers of English held at the University of Manoa, Honolulu, Hawaii. In 2005, she finished her post-graduate diploma course in TESOL from the Regional Language Center of Singapore.

Email: amgsward@yahoo.com